Praise of True Incense of Precepts and Samadhi

True incense of precepts and samadhi is lit,
 Clouds of fragrance soar up to Heaven.
 As it burns in the golden censer,
 All in the assembly are reverent and sincere.
 Fragrance instantly pervading everywhere,
 Quickly reaching out into the ten directions.
 Disasters and hindrances are eradicated,
 Just like for Yasodara in the past.

Ritual of the Emperor of Liang Repentance

Listen respectfully

The Emperor of Liang initiates this Repentance; Maitreya Bodhisattva names it.

Venerable Baozhi compiles it from the sacred Flower Treasury,

With names of Buddhas gathered from the sutras;

Monastics assemble and conduct the Repentance.

This Dharma of Repentance is proclaimed vastly.

The Repentance originates from a dreamlike encounter by the Emperor of Liang,
And it results in clouds of auspiciousness welling forth around the palace.

Within the Bodhimanda,

Glittering lanterns shining everywhere;

Golden flames ever illuminating;

Fragrant incense enveloping the palace;

Exquisite flowers adorning in many layers.

In the white clouds and blue sky, appears an adorned celestial being;
Before the white jade staircase, Chi is liberated from her suffering.

By the merit and virtue of this Repentance,
Calamities are quelled and offenses eradicated.

Calamities quelled, auspiciousness descends;
Offenses eradicated, blessings sprout forth.

A good medicine it is, curing illnesses;
A bright light it is, dispelling darkness.

Benefitting the nine states of existence,
Blessing the four kinds of birth.

Boundless is its merit and virtue,
Beyond praise or exaltation!

To commence this Repentance, we with utmost sincerity:

Bow respectfully to Samantabhadra, King of Great Conduct Bodhisattva;

Contemplate that this incense and flowers are offered to all Buddhas of the ten directions; Recite the sacred mantra phrases to purify this Repentance Bodhimanda; Cause the “blossoming offenses” to wither away and fall so as to achieve the perfect and abundant fruition.

We again reverently bow to the Greatly Compassionate One, wishing that he will bless us with efficacious responses.

There exists a Bodhisattva,
Seated in full-lotus posture,
Known as Samantabhadra,
With a body of white jade.
From the back of his neck
Emanates fifty kinds of light
Made of fifty different colors.
From every pore,
Golden light comes pouring forth;
At each tip of golden light,
Appear countless transformation Buddhas
And countless transformation Bodhisattvas,
All as his retinues.
Together they stroll around peacefully,
As precious flowers shower down.
Samantabhadra descends before the cultivator.
His elephant trumpets
And on top of its tusks,
Appear many maidens as exquisite as jade in ponds,
Singing and playing melodious music.
Their voices and sounds wonderful and subtle,
In praise of the Mahayana,
And the Path of One Reality.
Aware of this, we cultivators rejoice and bow in worship.
We further read and recite the profound sutras.
We universally bow to the ten-direction
Myriad transformation Buddhas,
The Stupa of Many Jewels Tathagata,
Shakyamuni Buddha,
Samantabhadra Bodhisattva,
And all great Bodhisattvas.
We now make this vow:
If I have planted blessings,
I can surely see Samantabhadra Bodhisattva.
So may this Venerable Universally Auspicious One
Manifest before me.

Namo Precious Udumbara Flower Bodhisattva Mahasattva (3 times)

His appearance, how wonderful and rare,
His light, illuminating all ten directions!
To whom I had made offerings in the past,
To whom I am now drawing near.
A sage leader he is, a king, divine among the divine,
With the voice of kalavinkas,
Taking great pity on all beings,
To him we now pay our reverence.

Commencement of the Repentance

Listen respectfully

The Buddha's Way surpasses the nine heavens and Lord Shakra, thus the Buddha is called Hero of the Worlds.

His merit exceeds that of all sentient beings in the nine planes of existence, thus he is named Trainer of the World.

He rescues beings suffering in the nine realms of darkness here; He draws beings in to the nine grades of lotuses there.

Within a thought, he transcends all nine successive stages of samadhi; Within the nine realms, he manifests physical forms to accord with conditions.

His radiance envelops the entire Dharma Realm,

His Path surpasses that of all beings.

May the Buddha manifest his adornments derived from myriad practices and bear witness to the deeds we do for Buddhas throughout the nine periods of time.

[Dharma Host: On behalf of _____] and all of us who seek to repent, we practice this Repentance Dharma of Kindness and Compassion in the Bodhimanda. We have come to Roll Nine. With all conditions fulfilled, we now enter the Repentance Platform. We reverently offer arrays of incense and lamps, flowers and fruits. We humbly present platters of exotic delicacies. These offerings to the Three Treasures are a token of our single-minded devotion. Now we purify our minds, still our thoughts, and sincerely confess our faults before the Buddha, whose Dharma body is unmoving, whose Dharma nature is tranquil, whose Dharma eye is perfect and brilliant, and whose Dharma — each and every aspect of it — is pervasive. The Buddha manifests his purple-golden hallmarks and radiates the bright fine light of white jade. We bow in reverence and take refuge with the Buddha. May the Buddha kindly take pity on us and gather us in as we strive to cleanse all remaining filth and continue to repent of all remaining offenses.

[Dharma Host: May _____ be earnestly mindful], including all of us who seek to repent, that since kalpas past which are as numerous as dust motes, we have been adrift and lost, without the chance to return to the source. We have always been confused about the principle of cause and effect operating in the nine realms and have been covered by ignorance. We did not believe that the retributions of suffering await us in the nine springs of the underworld and thus entertained rampant deviant views.

淨之福田，代爲依文而懺悔。恭叩洪慈，

We slighted the revered sutras of the nine divisions, thus wantonly committing all manner of offenses. We were entangled in the afflictions of the nine fetters, behaving recklessly and without restraint. We praised ourselves and slandered others; we harmed others to benefit ourselves. We deceived others by manipulating the weighing scales; we indulged in lust and wine causing us to drift in confusion. We did all these because of our greed for the fleeting pleasures of the mundane world and thus have not been spared from the extreme suffering of the dark paths. Realizing all this, we immediately repent, fortunate we are able to evince reverence in our hearts and take refuge with the Buddha, the true and pure field of blessings.

We now rely on the Repentance Text to repent on behalf of everyone. We respectfully bow to the Greatly Compassionate One and pray you will invisibly bless and protect us.

*On a white lotus dais is seated the Buddha of golden hallmarks,
The red lotus blossoms reveal his purple golden body.
His noble and fine features are the divine among the divine.
His vast states are indescribable — thus he is the Sage among sages.*

We now begin the Repentance Dharma of Kindness and Compassion in the Bodhimanda.

Together in this assembly, we single-mindedly return to and rely on all Buddhas of the three periods of time.

Repentance Dharma of Kindness and Compassion in the Bodhimanda - Roll Nine

Section 27 - Bowing to the Buddhas on behalf of Beings in the Avici Hells

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Starting from Section One on Taking Refuge up to this section, it has been repeatedly mentioned that despite the myriad varieties of dharma, contrasting like day and night, like merit and offenses, they can be all summed up into just two categories, dharmas of goodness or dharmas of evil. The dharmas of goodness lead beings to superior paths of humans and heavenly beings; whereas evil dharmas lead beings to deviated paths of the three evil destinies. If one cultivates humaneness and righteousness, one will tend towards superior destinies; if one harms and kills, then one will fall into inferior destinies.

Further, those who dwell in the superior paths are there due to their superior karma, not as a result of contention. They naturally enjoy wonderful bliss and tend towards supreme freedom and ease. On the other hand, those who fall into the inferior paths are there as a result of inferior karma. They live in flaming cities, within iron nets, eat iron pellets and hot iron, and drink molten copper or rocks; their lifespans surpass the duration of the cosmos, lasting for infinite kalpas.

Moreover the suffering in the hells is so terrifying that no one would ever want to experience it. When our consciousness leaves our bodies, we plunge into the cities of hell, suffer the retribution of the revolving wheel of blades slicing us and the revolving grinders of fire destroying our bodies. There, even if we wish to quickly end our lives, we will find it impossible to do so and will have to continue to endure a life full of suffering. Suppose one day we are freed from the hells, we in turn fall into the realm of hungry ghosts where our mouths spurt fire, lingering on in a zombie-like state.

After that, we are reborn among animals and undergo a multitude of suffering. We may become prey to other predators that devour our flesh. We undergo uncountable cycles of short lifespans. We may be slaughtered, dismembered, and end up boiled in pots or fried in pans; slices of our flesh may be laid on counters and slabs of our flesh hung and displayed. We may become tools of transportation, burdened with heavy loads for long hauls, driven over dangerous and rough terrain. Indeed, all of these are the grave suffering and misery we undergo — we lament throughout the long night and can hardly wait to see the light of dawn. Despite such crystal clear contrast between wholesome rewards and evil retributions, few believe in them. Because of our ego, we often give rise to doubts, and deluded by our doubts, we often shun goodness and instead tend towards evil.

That is why the Buddha mentioned ten factors that drag a person into the evil paths after death. They are:

- ❖ One's intention is not entirely wholesome, one does not cultivate merit and virtue.
- ❖ One is always gluttonous like a hungry tiger.
- ❖ One always indulges in wine and sex
- ❖ One harbors venomous hatred.
- ❖ One holds onto the habits of delusion and ignorance and refuses to listen to any remonstration; one gives free reign to wanton behavior, engaging in all manner of evil.
- ❖ One delights in killing.
- ❖ One bullies and takes advantage of the orphaned and weak.
- ❖ One gangs up with evil people, encroaching and pillaging the assets and territories of others.
- ❖ One likes to make grandiose proclamations and is not truthful.
- ❖ One lacks compassion towards all and creates various evil karma.

若人如是，不久存世，死入惡道。

今日道場，同業大眾。如佛所言，誰能免者？既不能免，於地獄中，皆有罪分。大眾各各覺悟此意，毋自放逸。宜與時競，行菩薩道。勤求諸法，利益眾生。一自滅罪，二生他福。此則自利利他，彼我無異。

相與今日，起勇猛心，起堅固心，起慈悲心，度一切心，救眾生心，至坐道場，勿忘此願。仰承十方，盡虛空界，一切諸佛，諸大菩薩，大神通力、大慈悲力、解脫地獄力、濟度餓鬼力、救拔畜生力、大神呪力、大威猛力，令某等所作利益，所願成就。等一痛切，五體投地，爲阿鼻大地獄，受苦眾生；乃至黑闇地獄，十八寒地獄，十八熱地獄，十八刀輪地獄，劍林地獄，火車地獄，沸屎地獄，鑊湯地獄。如是地獄，復有八萬四千眷屬等獄；其中

Behaving thus, it will not be long before one dies and falls into the evil paths.

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. When we consider what the Buddha said, who among us could be spared? Since we cannot be spared, that means we will have our share of retributions in the hell realm. Recognizing this fact, everyone of us should be wary and not be lax. We should cherish each passing minute and practice the Bodhisattva Path; we should diligently seek the Dharma and benefit all living beings. By doing so, we can eradicate our offenses as well as help others increase their blessings. This is what is meant by benefiting oneself and benefiting others and by being one with all.

Now let us all bring forth a courageous mind, a determined mind, a compassionate mind, a mind to take all beings across, and a mind to rescue all living beings. We pray that from now till the day we attain Buddhahood, we shall never forget these vows. We also look up to and beseech all Buddhas and great Bodhisattvas of the ten directions throughout empty space: May you enable all of us to accomplish deeds of benefiting others and to achieve our own vows, using your great spiritual powers, your power of great compassion, your power of rescuing beings from hells, your power of guiding and taking across hungry ghosts, your power of extricating animals from the animal realm, your power engendered by great spiritual mantras, and your awesome and mighty great power.

With heartfelt sincerity, we bow in full prostration. With our bodhi resolve, with our bodhi practice, and with our bodhi vows, we now take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world on behalf of all the following suffering beings who are:

- ❖ In the Avici Hell;
- ❖ In the Hells of Pitched Darkness;
- ❖ In the eighteen Hells of Freezing Cold;
- ❖ In the eighteen Hells of Blazing Heat;
- ❖ In the eighteen Hells of Wheels of Blades;
- ❖ In the Hells of Forests of Swords;

Again, we take refuge with the Three Treasures of the ten directions to the ends of empty space. We pray that the Three Treasures will, through the power of compassion, help save, extricate, and guide all beings who are suffering in the Avici Hells, the Hells of Pitched Darkness, the Hells of Wheels of Blades, the Hells of Fire Carts, the Hells of Boiling Excrement, and all other hells as well as their subsidiary hells. We pray, by virtue of the power of the Buddhas, the power of the Dharma, the power of all Bodhisattvas, and the power of all virtuous Sages that all hell beings be immediately liberated and never again fall into any of these different hells.

We also pray for all their karmic offenses to be eradicated and that they never again create the karma of hells. May they renounce rebirths in the hells and attain birth in the Pure Land. May they renounce the hell life and attain the wisdom life. May they renounce the hell body and attain the vajra body. May they renounce the suffering of hells and attain the bliss of Nirvana. May they be mindful of the suffering in hells and bring forth the bodhi mind. May they spontaneously manifest the four limitless minds and the six paramitas. May they gain self-mastery of the four unobstructed eloquencies and the six spiritual powers. May they be replete with wisdom and exert courageous vigor to practice the Bodhisattva Path without pause or rest. May they quickly attain the Ten Grounds, gain entry to the vajra mind, and realize Proper and Equal Enlightenment.

Section 30 - Bowing to the Buddhas on behalf of those in the Hell of Military Weaponry, the Hell of Copper Cauldron, and Other Hells

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Again with utmost sincerity, we bow in full prostration, and with the power of our bodhi resolve, we take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world on behalf of all beings suffering in all hells of the ten directions to the ends of empty space, including:

- ❖ The Hell of Thought;
- ❖ The Hell of Black Sand;
- ❖ The Hell of Nailing the Body;
- ❖ The Hell of the Well of Fire;
- ❖ The Hell of Stone Mortars;
- ❖ The Hell of Boiling Sand;
- ❖ The Hell of Military Weaponry;
- ❖ The Hell of Starvation;
- ❖ The Hell of Copper Cauldron, and all other countless hells.

Again, we take refuge with the Three Treasures of the ten directions to the ends of empty space. May you, with your power of kindness and compassion, rescue and protect all beings now suffering in the Hell of Military Weaponry as well as all other hells and their subsidiary hells. May they immediately be liberated today and have all their sufferings removed and eradicated forever. May they leave the conditions of the hells and be reborn with wisdom. May they bring forth the bodhi resolve upon recalling all the sufferings in the hells. May they cultivate the Bodhisattva practice without rest. May they enter the path of the One Vehicle and fulfill the practice of the Ten Grounds. May they all gain spiritual powers and then return to guide all sentient beings, so together they can all realize Buddhahood, the Proper Enlightenment.

Section 34 - Bowing to the Buddhas on behalf of Sentient Beings of the Six Realms

From the causes and conditions generated from the merit and virtue of our bowing to the Buddhas may we now make the following vows on behalf of all heavenly beings, ascetic masters, dragons and the rest of the eightfold division: May all beings of the ten directions to the ends of time and space, including those of the four births and the six paths, from now until they attain bodhi, no longer commit any wrong or evil that would cause them to undergo pain and suffering. May they no longer perpetrate the ten evil deeds and the five rebellious acts that would cause them to fall into the three evil destinies. May all beings also attain the Bodhisattva Mahasattva's pure karma of body, speech, and mind, and may all of them bring forth the Bodhisattva's great resolve,

- ❖ a resolve like the great earth, which generates all roots of goodness;
- ❖ a resolve like the vast ocean, which can uphold all Buddhas' Dharma of wisdom;
- ❖ a resolve like Mount Sumeru, which enables all beings to firmly dwell in bodhi;
- ❖ a resolve like a precious mani jewel, which is far apart from afflictions;
- ❖ a vajra resolve, which is decisive in all Dharmas;
- ❖ a steadfast resolve, which is beyond harm from any demon or externalist;
- ❖ a lotus-like resolve, which can transcend the defilement of any worldly dharma;
- ❖ a resolve like an udumbara flower, which is hard to encounter in kalpas;
- ❖ a resolve like the sun in the clear sky, which eliminates all obstructions of delusion and illusion;

- ❖ a resolve like empty space, which is beyond measure by any being.

We further pray that all beings of the four births and the six paths, from today onward:

- ❖ Contemplate the nature of consciousness;
- ❖ Contemplate the nature of understanding with resolute faith;
- ❖ Renounce frivolous speech and always contemplate words of Dharma;
- ❖ Practice giving without a trace of stinginess;
- ❖ In thought after thought be courageous, vigorous, and fearless;
- ❖ Dedicate the merits they cultivate to all beings;
- ❖ Never fall back onto the deviant paths but always focus on the One Vehicle;
- ❖ Regard all good as illusions and all evil as dreams;
- ❖ Renounce and end the cycle of birth and death and swiftly transcend the three realms;
- ❖ Contemplate and clearly understand the profound and wondrous Dharma;
- ❖ Possess an abundance of resources to generously make offerings to Buddhas;
- ❖ Possess an abundance of resources to generously make offerings to Dharma;
- ❖ Possess an abundance of resources to generously make offerings to all Bodhisattvas;
- ❖ Possess an abundance of resources to generously make offerings to all sages and worthy ones.

If there are living beings in the future who do not have these vows, we pray that they too shall all enter the sea of these great vows and instantaneously accomplish merit and virtue, and wisdom. By the power of the Buddhas, may they attain as-you-wish self-mastery and accomplish Proper Enlightenment identical to that of the Tathagatas.

Section 35 - Wary and Mindful of Impermanence

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Together we have bowed, repented, and made vows on behalf of all beings in the six realms. We should now awaken to the impermanence of this world. Therefore, we should be mindful that all blessings and sufferings are the consequences of past causes. We should take this to heart, never be apart from this mindfulness. Effects follow causes, just like a shadow following form, or an echo following sound. These consequences are never off by a hair's breadth, and no one can escape them.

The retribution of good and evil never errs and cannot be personally altered by willful means. May all in this Repentance assembly awaken to the reality of impermanence, help ourselves by cultivating diligently, and never be lax nor fail to apply effort. The wise ones always lament that even if one lived for millions of years enjoying the five desires of wealth, sex, food, fame, and sleep, one is still unable to avoid the suffering of the three evil paths. How much the less, when our lifespan is only about a hundred years, and our productive years are not even half of that! Hence, hard-pressed with such a short lifespan, how could we possibly afford to be lax?

Moreover, the world is illusory and delusive, decaying and disappearing before long. What exists now will eventually come to an end just as one at the pinnacle now will eventually fall; being together is followed by separation; birth is followed by death. When it is time for us to die, none of those who deeply love and cherish us — fathers, mothers, siblings, spouses, relatives — can take our place. Neither a high position, nor ample salary and benefits, or glory, status, aristocracy, or wealth can prolong our lives. Nor can it be done by pleading and beseeching or life-vitalizing food! The unseen forces of death determine that no one can stay beyond one's time.

經云：死者，盡也。氣絕神逝，形骸蕭索。人物一統，無生不終。而捨命時，受大苦惱。內外六親，圍繞號哭。死者惶怖，莫知依投？身虛體冷，氣將欲盡；見先所作，善惡報相，森然在目。其修善者，天神扶衛。其行惡者，牛頭驅逐。

獄卒羅刹，永無寬恕。慈親孝子，不能相救。夫妻恩愛，相看就盡。風刀解身，苦不可言，死者爾時，肝膽寸裂。無量痛惱，一時同集。神識周憊，如狂如醉。決欲起一念善，作一毫福。懷恨在心，不復能得。如是苦惱，無人代受。

涅槃經言：死者於險難處，無有資糧。去處懸遠，又無侶伴。晝夜常行，無有邊際。深邃幽闇，無有光明。入無遮止，到不得脫。生不修福，死歸苦處，愁毒辛酸，不可療治。非是惡色，令人怖畏。

The Sutra says: "Death is the termination of one's life force. With one's last breath, the spirit passes on, leaving the body to decay. Thus, at the point of death, the sentient and insentient merge and become one. All that comes into being must end in death." When dying, one suffers great agony and distress. Surrounded by wailing and howling relatives — whether by blood or marriage, close or distant — one becomes terrified, knowing not where to go or who to rely on. When one's energy is spent, one's body becomes cold, and all the good or evil done throughout one's life unfolds before one's eyes. Those who have done good gain the assistance and protection of heavenly beings; those who have done evil are herded and driven by ox-headed hell guardians.

The ox-headed wardens and rakshasas are never lenient nor forgiving. No caring parent nor filial children can rescue the dying from these ox-headed wardens or rakshasas. Loving couples too, cannot do anything except watch helplessly as their spouse dies. As the life force expires, one experiences the wind cutting one's body like slicing blades, causing indescribable pain and agony. At that point, the dying feels sharp and shattering pain. An endless multitude of afflictions and pain simultaneously converge. The person becomes so overwhelmingly terrified, and is as if crazy or drunk. Even if this person is to have a single thought of doing good to create a hair's breadth of merit, with the mind filled with hatred and resentment, it is just impossible for him to do so. Such are the suffering and afflictions the dying has to undergo, and no one else can take his place.

The Nirvana Sutra states that the deceased travels on a treacherous path without aid or provisions. The journey is long and endless, and one is alone, travelling all day long, on a path shrouded in complete darkness. Having entered the underworld, punishments are meted out impartially; once in, there is no escaping. When alive, if one does not cultivate blessings, when dead, one will end up in places of suffering, full of agony, excruciating pain, and extreme bitterness, misery for which there is no remedy. All such horrific scenes are not just mentioned here in order to instill fear in everyone.

今日道場，同業大眾。生死果報，如環無窮。孤魂獨逝，無人見者。不可尋覓，不可物寄。唯各努力，捍勞忍苦。勤修四等，六波羅蜜，以爲獨逝諸趣之資，莫以強健而自安心。宜各至心，等一痛切，五體投地，歸依世間，大慈悲父。

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. The retributions of life and death are like a wheel revolving endlessly. After passing away, we become ghosts, destitute and existing in solitude, unseen and beyond the reach of those looking for us. Thus, when alive, we should exhaust all efforts and patiently endure toil and hardship to diligently cultivate the four limitless minds and the six paramitas, to aid us in our passing. We should refrain from being complacent, believing we will always be strong and healthy. Let us all now with utmost, heartfelt sincerity, bow in full prostration, and take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

- ❖ Eradicate all causes of offenses and their immeasurable retributions of suffering;
- ❖ Ultimately remove all entangled karmic afflictions;
- ❖ Always be able to personally participate in all Buddhas' Dharma assemblies;
- ❖ Practice the Bodhisattva Path and be reborn as wished;
- ❖ Diligently cultivate in accord with the four limitless minds and the six paramitas;
- ❖ Be replete with the four limitless eloquences and the six spiritual powers;
- ❖ Attain hundreds of thousands of samadhis as soon as the mind is set on them;
- ❖ Be able to enter each and every gateway of dharani; and
- ❖ Finally, quickly realize Buddhahood, the Proper Enlightenment.

Section 36 - Bowing to the Buddhas on behalf of Laborers and Others

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Again with utmost sincerity, we bring forth the mind of kindness and compassion, and without differentiating between friends and foes, bow on behalf of all of the following, including all of their family members and associates:

- ❖ All workers who are involved in the process of bringing food from the fields to the kitchen and on to the dining table;
- ❖ Manual laborers including volunteers;
- ❖ Those who engage in charitable deeds as well as those who support such deeds;
- ❖ All prisoners everywhere, locked up or in solitary confinement, tormented with suffering, worries, afflictions, and undergoing all manner of punishment.

Contemplating their plight, we see that although they have a human body in this world, they have little happiness but much suffering. They are never free but are always handcuffed, chained, shackled, or bound. Their punishment may be due to offenses committed in their present lives or as retribution due to past offenses. They ought to be freed but lack the opportunity to plead their case. They may be sentenced to death and lack someone to rescue or protect them.

On behalf of all these beings, their families and associates, we now take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

Again, we take refuge with the Three Treasures of the ten directions to the ends of empty space. May you, with your power of kindness and compassion, care for and protect all current manual workers together with their retinues. From now until they attain Buddhahood, may all their karmic hindrances and sufferings be eradicated. May they be blessed with longevity, peace and happiness, both in body and mind; be forever free from calamities, disasters, afflictions and hindrances. May they bring forth the Mahayana resolve and cultivate Bodhisattva practices. May they perfect the six paramitas and four limitless minds, renounce the suffering of birth and death, and attain the bliss of Nirvana.

As to those confined in prison or captivity, held in fetters, and tormented by sufferings, illnesses and worries, and being ill at ease, together with their retinues and relatives: May all of their sufferings be eradicated by the merit, virtue, and awe-inspiring power generated by our bowing to the Buddhas. May the various causes of all this evil karma be eradicated as well. May they get out of their imprisonment, gain entry into wholesome dharmas, enjoy longevity and infinite wisdom, and find eternal bliss in body and mind like that experienced in the third stage of dhyana.

Thereafter, may they return to rescue all other beings so that all ascend towards Proper Enlightenment and gain mastery of spiritual powers.

Section 37 - Dedication of Merit

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Having brought forth the bodhi resolve and carried out what needs to be done, we ought to now dedicate all the accumulated merit and virtue. Why? It is because we living beings are attached to karmic rewards, are unable to renounce them, and thus find it difficult to gain liberation. By dedicating the merit from even the smallest blessing or a hair's breadth of goodness, we would gradually gain detachment from these rewards. This in turn leads us toward liberation and brings us the ease of self-mastery. Hence, the sutras praise and encourage the practice of dedicating merit, as it will bring about great benefits. Henceforth, everyone is encouraged to dedicate all merit without attachment. Let us all now with utmost sincerity, bow in full prostration and take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

Again, we take refuge with the Three Treasures of the ten directions to the ends of empty space. May you, with your power of kindness and compassion, care for and protect all of us so that we will perfect our practices and vows. Henceforth, until we attain bodhi, may we who are here in this Bodhimanda with our shared karma never retreat or regress from the Bodhisattva Path, and may we liberate living beings before we ourselves attain Buddhahood. For those of us who are trapped in samsara and have not attained the Way, may the power of these vows enable us to always be pure in the karma of body, speech, and mind, wherever we may be born.

May we constantly bring forth the gentle and supple mind, the harmonious mind, the mind of vigor, the quiescent mind, the true mind, the unscattered mind, the mind free of greed and stinginess, the great supreme mind, the great compassionate mind, the peacefully dwelling mind, the joyful mind, the mind to rescue all beings, the mind that guards and protects all beings, the mind that guards the bodhi resolve, and the mind that resolves to be equal with Buddhas. These are the vast, supreme, and wonderful minds that we vow to bring forth. May we be focused in our efforts to be erudite, renounce desire and cultivate samadhi, and bring benefit and peace to all beings. May we never renounce our vows for bodhi and together attain Proper Enlightenment.

The Dharma of Dedicating Merit on behalf of Others

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Let all of us kneel and put our palms together. Let us be mindful and follow the Dharma Host as we now make these dedications on behalf of others:

- ❖ We dedicate all the merit from the virtuous deeds performed by all the heavenly beings and ascetic masters of the ten directions, so that, together, we return to the path leading to Proper Enlightenment.
- ❖ We dedicate all the supreme and wholesome deeds performed by the dragons, ghosts, and spirits of the ten directions so that, together, we return to the Path of the One Vehicle.
- ❖ We dedicate all the karma cultivated by peoples and kings of the ten directions striving for bodhi so that, together, we return to the unsurpassed Way.
- ❖ We dedicate all the wholesome karma, however minute the amount, cultivated by beings in the six realms, so that together we return to the unsurpassed Way.
- ❖ We dedicate to the Buddha Way all the merit generated by all Buddhist disciples of the ten directions: all bhikshus, Arhats of all four stages who are free of attachments, those seeking the path of Sages Enlightened by Conditions, all of whom take beings across whether visibly or invisibly to understand the Dharma of causes and conditions, and other Dharmas.

❖ We dedicate to living beings all the merit generated by all Bodhisattvas of the ten directions who read, recite, and uphold sutras, exit or enter dhyana, exhort beings to do myriad deeds of goodness, and base themselves on the threefold foundations of precepts, samadhi, and wisdom, so that together we return to the unsurpassed Way.

❖ Furthermore, we now exhort beings in the heavens and human realms, who are on the Sagely Way or who have done various good deeds, to dedicate their merit so that together we return to the unsurpassed Way. May they dedicate to all living beings their blessings, however minute, from resolving on bodhi and practicing repentance, whether practicing themselves or exhorting others to practice.

❖ As long as a single being has not attained Buddhahood, we vow never to renounce the bodhi resolve; only after every being accomplishes Buddhahood will we realize Proper Enlightenment. We beseech all Buddhas, Bodhisattvas, and other sages of non-outflows, to bear witness to our vows and gather us in, both in this life and lives after.

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. With utmost sincerity, we bow in full prostration. Together, we dedicate all the merit on behalf of all:

- ❖ Spiritual mentors, elders, and fellow students;
- ❖ Faithful donors, as well as all good and bad advisers;
- ❖ Four world-protecting heavenly kings;
- ❖ Demon kings throughout the ten directions;
- ❖ The intelligent and righteous spirits, celestial spirits, earth spirits, empty space spirits, spirits who bless the good and punish the evil, spirits who guard and protect those who uphold mantras, together with the dragon kings of the five directions, dragons and the rest of the eightfold division;
- ❖ Visible or invisible spirits and souls; and
- ❖ Living beings of the ten directions to the ends of empty space.

May all heavenly beings, ascetic masters, dragons and the rest of the eightfold division and all other living beings, henceforth, until they attain bodhi, always understand the Reality of No-mark, and be free of any attachment.

Concluding the Repentance

The Guiding Master of the nine-grade lotuses
 Is attended upon by gods of six heavens and nine tiers.
 The Benevolent One of the nine realms
 Is followed by Arhats of the nine kinds who study under him.
 We sincerely pray the Sage of Compassion
 Forever dwells in the nine-level palaces,
 Rescuing the multitudes of beings,
 So together we ascend the nine-grade lotus daises.
 His merit surpasses those in the nine existences,
 His Way excels that of the nine heavens.
 We look up to the Greatly Enlightened One,
 May he bear witness to our Repentance.

[Dharma Host: On behalf of _____] and all of us who seek to repent, we have been chanting the efficacious text from the oceanic treasury and are now concluding Roll Nine. Having started at dawn and ending at dusk, we are now about to finish generating its merit. Respectfully, we come before and take refuge with the Sagely Ones. We have burned [exotic] Seashore Chandana incense, offered rare fruits from the exquisite garden and flavorful tea to dispel torpor, lit lamps to shatter the darkness, offered exotic flowers revealing the wondrous mysteries of Heaven, and carried out chanting that resembles celestial melodies. We are sincere in our sixfold mindfulness and are focused in our chan contemplation. Summing up all the merit and virtue, we universally dedicate them to Anuttara-samyak-sambodhi. May all Bodhisattvas Mahasattvas, Hearers, Arhats, heavenly beings, rulers of heaven and earth in control of yin and yang, dragons and the rest of the eightfold division who help maintain the balance of Nature, bear witness to our sincerity and enable all of us to dwell in true and eternal bliss.

[Dharma Host: On behalf of _____] and all of us who seek to repent, we bow this Repentance in order to eradicate various karmic hindrances, attain everlasting auspiciousness, immediately ascend the nine grades of lotus daises, and quickly arrive at the Lotus Land. We bow in prostration, praying that all karmic offenses of the nine fetters be resolved and that everyone transcends many kalpas of suffering in the nine dark destinies.

We bow and earnestly pray:

May everyone be free of the nine kinds of view delusions of the nine grounds and quickly arrive in the Pure Land of the nine grades of lotuses and their nine subdivisions.

May everyone excel in the nine merits and be adorned with the nine virtues. We have tried to be as sincere as we could, but we fear our sincerity may still fall short. Let us exhort ourselves that together, we continue to repent and reform.

Listen respectfully

The Benevolent One with ten titles,
Realizes Proper Enlightenment on a precious lotus.

The Taming Hero with ten bodies,
Turns the Dharma wheel within a dust mote.
His brilliant light shines throughout the ten directions;
His skill-in-means surpasses all of the Ten Grounds.
Perfect in the ten paramitas,

He is the Great King of the ten vows.

Looking up, we pray for your vast compassion.
May you watch over us with caring eyes.

[Dharma Host: On behalf of _____] and all of us who seek to repent, we practice this Repentance Dharma of Kindness and Compassion in the Bodhimanda. Now we have come to Roll Ten. With all conditions fulfilled, we now enter the Repentance Platform. Reverently and wholeheartedly, we meticulously present ten kinds of offering to the Three Treasures of the ten directions. Immersing ourselves in all ten rolls of Repentance texts and cultivating in accord with the tenfold Repentance Dharma, we free ourselves from offenses of the ten entanglements.

[Dharma Host: May _____ be earnestly mindful], including all of us who seek to repent, that the retributions we now undergo are a result of the causes planted in kalpas past. Ignorant of planting proper causes that come from the ten good deeds, we committed the ten evil deeds resulting in our karmic hindrances. We become caught in the ten entanglements, which hook and lock us up in a continuous chain. We become tainted and driven by the ten kinds of bad habits, like moths darting towards flame. Thus our karma keeps growing and branching out, taking on myriads of patterns and forms, which in turn become the source of limitless offenses.

We have always been satiated with greed, and have been unable to let go of emotional love and egotistical views. The fire of hatred burns up our bodhi seeds; the winds of karma devastate our forest of merit and virtue. Years pass in vain before we recognize our faults; time flies before we awaken to our misdeeds. How fortunate

Repentance Dharma of Kindness and Compassion in the Bodhimanda - Roll Ten

Section 38 - Bodhisattvas' Dharma of Dedication of Merit and Virtue

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. We have toiled and endured various hardships bowing this Repentance, thus cultivating limitless roots of goodness. It is therefore fitting that each one of us brings forth the following thoughts:

I dedicate the roots of goodness that I have cultivated to benefit all living beings so they may attain ultimate purity. May these roots of goodness help eradicate the boundless suffering and afflictions of hell-beings, hungry ghosts, and animals, and spare them from further meetings with King Yama.

May this Repentance Dharma:

- ❖ Be a great dwelling for all living beings, eradicating their suffering of the skandhas;
- ❖ Be a great guardian and protector of beings, freeing them from afflictions;
- ❖ Be their great refuge, enabling them to be free from fear;
- ❖ Be their place of rest, settling them on the path towards the ground of wisdom;
- ❖ Be their secure abode, enabling them to dwell in ultimate peace and security;
- ❖ Be a great beacon, dispelling the darkness of ignorance;
- ❖ Be a great brilliant lamp, enabling them to dwell securely in the radiance of ultimate purity;
- ❖ Be a great guiding master, enabling them to attain expedient means and realize the pure wisdom body.

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. All these Dharmas are the Bodhisattvas Mahasattvas' practices of dedicating all their roots of goodness for the sake of friends and foes. Bodhisattvas are free of discriminating thoughts. In their contemplation of equanimity they consider themselves as one with all living

向。於諸眾生，等無差別。入平等觀，無怨親想。常以愛眼，視諸眾生。若眾生懷怨，於菩薩起惡逆心者；菩薩爲眞善知識，善調伏心，爲說深法。譬如大海，一切眾毒，所不能壞，菩薩亦爾。

愚癡無智，不知報恩，如是眾生，起無量惡，不能動亂菩薩道心。譬如杲日，普照眾生，不爲無目而隱光明。菩薩道心，亦復如是。不爲惡者而生退沒，不以眾生難調伏故，退捨善根。菩薩摩訶薩，於諸善根，信心清淨，長養大悲。以諸善根，普爲眾生，深心迴向，非但口言。

於諸眾生，皆發歡喜心、明淨心、柔軟心、慈悲心、愛念心、攝取心、饒益心、安樂心、最勝心，以諸善根迴向。菩薩摩訶薩，發如是善根迴向。我等今日，亦應仰學如是迴向，心念口言：若我所有迴向功德，令諸眾生，得清淨趣，得清淨生。 beings and are free of notions of friends and foes. They always regard living beings with eyes of compassion. Even when faced with living beings who harbor hateful or heinous thoughts towards them, the Bodhisattvas are like a vast ocean that cannot be ruined by any type of poison — they remain genuine good and wise advisers, disciplining and harmonizing these beings and explaining the profound Dharma for them.

Even when faced with beings who are deluded, lack wisdom and gratitude, and who do not know how to repay kindness, thus committing immeasurable evil, Bodhisattvas remain undisturbed in their resolve for the Way — just like a brilliant sun in the sky that universally shines on beings and does not hide its light from the blind.

Bodhisattvas are also like this in their resolve for the Way — they do not retreat or relinquish their practices just because living beings are difficult to tame and subdue, nor do they forsake the roots of goodness. With regard to their roots of goodness, Bodhisattvas Mahasattvas are pure in their faith and continually nurture their mind of great compassion. They dedicate these roots of goodness to all beings everywhere, doing it profoundly, not just verbally.

With regard to living beings, Bodhisattvas Mahasattvas bring forth a happy and joyful mind, a bright and pure mind, a gentle and supple mind, a kind and compassionate mind, a caring and cherishing mind, a mind that gathers in, a mind that benefits, a mind that brings peace and delight, and the supreme mind, and further they dedicate their roots of goodness to living beings. Similarly, we should now respectfully emulate these Bodhisattvas Mahasattvas and dedicate our roots of goodness, both in speech and in mind. We dedicate all of our merit and virtue, wishing that living beings will:

- ❖ Attain rebirth in the Pure Lands or other pure destinies;
- ❖ Be replete with merit and virtue that cannot be ruined by the mundane world;
- ❖ Be inexhaustible in their merit, virtue and wisdom;

功德滿足，一切世間，無能壞者。功德智慧，無有窮極。身口意業，具足莊嚴。常見諸佛，以不壞信，聽受正法，離諸疑網，憶持不忘。淨身口業，心常安住，勝妙善根。永離貧乏，七財充滿。修學一切菩薩所學。得諸善根，成就平等。得妙解脫，一切種智。於諸眾生，得慈愛眼。身根清淨，言辭辯慧。發起諸善，心無染著。入甚深法，攝取一切。同住諸佛，住無所住。

所有迴向，悉如十方菩薩摩訶薩，所發迴向。廣大如法性，究竟如虛空。願某等得如所願，滿菩提願。四生六道，同得如願。重復增到，五體投地，歸依世間，大慈悲父。

- ❖ Be well-adorned in body, speech, and mind;
- ❖ Always behold the Buddhas, listen and embrace their teachings of Proper Dharma with indestructible faith, cast away the net of doubt, and retain all the teachings without forgetting any;
- ❖ Purify their body and speech karma, with minds constantly and peacefully abiding in the supreme and wonderful roots of goodness;
- ❖ Never be impoverished but be always replete with the seven kinds of wealth;
- ❖ Learn what all Bodhisattvas learn, attaining roots of goodness;
- ❖ Accomplish equanimity, wonderful liberation, and Wisdom of All Modes;
- ❖ Attain eyes of loving kindness towards all living beings;
- ❖ Be pure in their body faculties and be intelligent and eloquent in speech;
- ❖ Practice all kinds of goodness;
- ❖ Be free of any defilement or attachment, enter the profound Dharma, and gather in all living beings;
- ❖ Dwell where Buddhas dwell — the place of no dwelling.

We make the same dedications as all Bodhisattvas Mahasattvas of the ten directions — dedications that are as expansive as the Dharma nature and ultimate, like empty space. May all of us fulfill our vows and our bodhi resolve, and may all beings of the four births and the six paths also have their wishes fulfilled. Again, we bow in full prostration with utmost respect and take refuge with the Greatly Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

Again, we take refuge with the Three Treasures of the ten directions to the ends of empty space. We beseech the Three Treasures to gather us in with your power of kindness and compassion, enabling us to perfect and accomplish our dedication of merit and virtue. There may come a time when we are burdened with immeasurable grave and evil karmic offenses deserving the retributions of boundless and limitless suffering, trapped in the evil paths, unable to extricate ourselves, thus causing us to go against the bodhi resolve that we brought forth today, go against the bodhi practices, and go against the fundamental vows of bodhi. We now beseech the Bodhisattvas of All Grounds throughout the ten directions, as well as other sages not to forsake your fundamental vows and once again help rescue us from suffering in the three evil paths, enabling all of us to attain liberation.

May you never abandon living beings even if you have to endure suffering. May you shoulder the heavy burdens of living beings, fulfill your vows of equanimity, and liberate all living beings from samsara — birth, old age, sickness, death, worry, distress, suffering, afflictions, as well as limitless other woes and agonies. May you thus enable all beings to attain purity, be replete with roots of goodness, and attain ultimate liberation. May all beings break free from the multitudes of demons, stay away from unwholesome friends, and be close to wholesome friends and kin. May all beings accomplish the karma of purity, completely end all suffering, perfect limitless Bodhisattva vows and practices, joyfully behold Buddhas, attain All-Wisdom, and then return to save and liberate all other living beings.

Section 39 - Making Vows

Today, we who are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma, having dedicated our merit, should proceed to make vows. A thorough review will reveal that all evil is committed because of our six sense faculties; they are the very source of all troubles and disasters. However, these six sense faculties are also the source of limitless blessing. The Srimala Sutra states, “Guard your six sense faculties, purify your karma of body, speech, and mind.” Based on this teaching, we can surmise that the proper use of the six sense faculties form the basis from which all goodness arise. Therefore, we should make great vows about our six sense faculties.

Making Vows about the Eye Faculty

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. We vow that all beings of the four births and the six paths throughout the ten directions, henceforth until they attain bodhi:

- ❖ Will not behold sights that lead to insatiable greed, desire, deception, and delusion;
- ❖ Will not behold any fawning, flattery or other crooked behavior;
- ❖ Will not behold any fancy events that lead to temptation;
- ❖ Will not behold ugly sights of anger, hatred, or contention;
- ❖ Will not behold sights of beating, fighting, tormenting, or other forms of harming or injuring others;
- ❖ Will not behold sights of slaughtering, slicing, or other forms of mutilating the bodies of living beings;
- ❖ Will not behold the dark sights of ignorance, doubt, and lack of faith;
- ❖ Will not behold sights of arrogance, disrespect, and lack of humility;
- ❖ Will not behold the ninety-six deviant views.

惟願一切眾生，從今日去。眼常得見十方常住法身，湛然之色。常見三十二相，紫磨金色。常見八十種好，隨形之色。常見諸天諸仙，奉寶來獻，散華之色。常見口出五種色光，說法度人之色。常見分身散體，遍滿十方之色。常見諸佛放肉髻光，感於有緣來會之色。常見十方菩薩辟支羅漢，眾聖之色。常得與諸眾生，及諸眷屬，觀佛之色。常見眾善，無教假色。常見七覺淨華之色。常見解脫妙果之色。常見今日道場，大眾歡喜，讚法頂受之色。常見四眾圍繞，聽法渴仰之色。常見一切布施持戒，忍辱精進之色。常見一切靜默禪思，修習智慧之色。常見一切眾生得無生忍，現前受記歡喜之色。常見一切登金剛慧，斷無明闇，補處之色。常見一切沐浴法流，不退之色。已發眼根願竟，相與至心，五體投地，歸依世間，大慈悲父。

Instead, may all beings always be able to:

- ❖ Behold the eternally-abiding tranquil Dharma body that pervades the ten directions;
- ❖ Behold the Buddha's purple-golden body with the thirty-two major hallmarks and eighty subsidiary characteristics;
- ❖ Behold heavenly beings and ascetic masters making offerings of treasures and showering flowers;
- ❖ Behold the five-colored light emanating from the mouths of those proclaiming the Dharma to liberate living beings;
- ❖ Behold the Buddhas' transformation bodies that appear everywhere throughout the ten directions;
- ❖ Behold Buddhas emitting light from the flesh prominence at the crowns of their heads to gather in beings with whom they have affinities.
- ❖ Behold all Bodhisattvas, Pratyekabuddhas, Arhats and other sages of the ten directions;
- ❖ Always join other beings and their retinues when they behold Buddhas;
- ❖ Behold the formless and wordless teachings that give rise to multitudes of goodness;
- ❖ Behold the flower of enlightenment that results from the sevenfold purities;
- ❖ Behold the wondrous fruition of liberation;
- ❖ Behold this Dharma Assembly joyfully praising and respectfully embracing the Dharma;
- ❖ Behold the disciples of the fourfold assembly gathered together, listening to the Dharma with earnestness and reverence;
- ❖ Behold the practices of giving, upholding precepts, patience and vigor;
- ❖ Behold the practices of meditative stillness, contemplation, and wisdom;
- ❖ Behold all beings attaining the patience of non-production and joyfully receiving predictions from Buddhas;
- ❖ Behold all beings ascending the ground of vajra wisdom, dispelling the darkness of ignorance, and attaining the position of avaivartika, where those who will succeed to be Buddhas abide;
- ❖ Behold all beings never retreating but always immersed in the stream of Dharma.

Having made these vows about our eye faculty, let us all now, with utmost sincerity, bow in full prostration and take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

Making Vows about the Ear Faculty

Again, may all of us here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma together with all other beings of the four births and the six paths throughout the ten directions, henceforth until we all attain bodhi:

- ❖ Never hear the sounds of crying or weeping caused by worry or suffering;
- ❖ Never hear the sounds of suffering in the Avici Hells;
- ❖ Never hear the thundering and rumbling sounds of the boiling liquids in the hells;
- ❖ Never hear the terrifying sounds of splitting, tearing, and cutting from the Hells of Mountain of Blades and Trees of Swords;
- ❖ Never hear sounds of the limitless, unceasing pain and suffering in the Eighteen Hells.
- ❖ Never hear the sounds of hungry ghosts tormented and famished by hunger and thirst, begging in vain for food;
- ❖ Never hear the sounds of hungry ghosts' joints burning while they are moving, which resemble the sounds of five hundred carriages rolling;
- ❖ Never hear the suffering cries of animals with huge bodies five yojanas in extent, bitten by little worms;
- ❖ Never hear the suffering sounds of those reborn as camels, mules, horses and oxen that are always over-loaded, whipped or harshly beaten for renegeing on their debts from past lives;
- ❖ Never hear the sounds of the eight kinds of suffering, which include being apart from those you love, and being together with those you hate, so forth;
- ❖ Never hear the suffering sounds of the four hundred four illnesses;
- ❖ Never hear the sounds of anything unwholesome or evil;
- ❖ Never hear the distracting sounds of entertainment coming from musical instruments such as bells, conches, drums, stringed instruments, harps, or the bewitching chimes of beautiful jade ornaments.

惟願一切眾生，從今日去。耳常得聞諸佛說法，八種音聲。常聞無常苦空，無我之聲。常聞八萬四千，波羅蜜聲。常聞假名諸法，無性之聲。常聞諸佛一音說法，各得解悟之聲。常聞一切眾生皆有佛性，法身常住不滅之聲。常聞十地菩薩，忍辱修進之聲。常聞得無生解，善入佛慧，超出生三界之聲。常聞諸法身菩薩入法流水，真俗並觀，念念具足萬行之聲。常聞十方辟支羅漢，四果之聲。常聞帝釋，爲諸天說般若之聲。常聞十地補處大士，在兜率宮，說不退轉地法行之聲。常聞萬善同歸得佛之聲。常聞諸佛讚歎一切眾生，能行十善隨喜之聲。願諸眾生，常聞諸佛讚言善哉，是人不久成佛之聲。已發耳根願竟，相與至心，五體投地，重復歸依世間，大慈悲父。

Instead, may all beings henceforth always be able to:

- ❖ Hear the sounds of Buddhas proclaiming Dharma with the eight types of voices;
- ❖ Hear the sounds that reveal the truth of impermanence, suffering, emptiness, and no-self;
- ❖ Hear the sounds of the eighty-four thousand paramitas;
- ❖ Hear the sounds of the empty nature of the myriad phenomena;
- ❖ Hear Buddhas expound the Dharma in one voice, yet hear and awaken according to each one's potential;
- ❖ Hear the sounds of the teachings that all beings have inherent Buddha nature and that the Dharma body abides eternally;
- ❖ Hear the practices of patience and vigor by Bodhisattvas of the Ten Grounds;
- ❖ Hear sounds about attaining non-production, skillfully entering the Buddha's wisdom, and transcending the three realms;
- ❖ Hear how Bodhisattvas who have realized the Dharma body enter the stream of Dharma, contemplate both mundane and ultimate truths, and in thought after thought perfect the myriad practices.
- ❖ Hear the fruition of Pratyekabuddhas and Arhats of all four stages in the ten directions;
- ❖ Hear Lord Shakra expounding Prajna to celestial beings;
- ❖ Hear the next-to-be Buddhas, the Tenth-Ground Mahasattvas in the Tushita Heaven, expounding the practices of the ground of non-retreat;
- ❖ Hear how myriad goodness leads to the realization of Buddhahood;
- ❖ Hear the sounds of all Buddhas praising and rejoicing in living beings' practices of the ten good deeds;
- ❖ Hear the Buddha's praise: "Good indeed! This person will soon attain Buddhahood."

Having made these vows about our ear faculty, let us all now, with utmost sincerity, bow in full prostration and take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

Making Vows about the Nose Faculty

Again, we are here today in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Together with all other beings of the four births and the six paths throughout the ten directions, henceforth, until we attain bodhi, may we:

- ❖ Never smell the odor of any food that involves killing;
- ❖ Never smell the odors of hunting or setting fire to kill living beings;
- ❖ Never smell the odors of steaming, boiling, or frying creatures;
- ❖ Never smell the stench from the thirty-six parts of a human body, which is just a foul-smelling skin-bag;
- ❖ Never smell the enticing scents of lavish silken crepe and embroidered feminine clothing;
- ❖ Never smell the odors of flesh being stripped, torn and burned in the hells;
- ❖ Never smell the odors of hungry ghosts drinking urine, pus, blood, or eating excrement;
- ❖ Never smell the stench of animals;
- ❖ Never smell the putrid sores of the neglected or the bedridden;
- ❖ Never smell foul and filthy urine and stool;
- ❖ Never smell the odors of decaying and swollen worm-infested corpses;

Instead, may all of us in the six paths, henceforth always be able to:

- ❖ Smell the priceless incense of ox-head sandalwood that pervades the worlds of the ten directions;
- ❖ Smell the fragrance of the five-colored udumbara flower;
- ❖ Smell the fragrances of the flowers and trees in the Garden of Joy in the Trayastrimsha Heaven;
- ❖ Smell the fragrance of Dharma spoken in the Tushita Heaven;
- ❖ Smell the fragrance of roaming at ease in the Wonderful Dharma Hall in the Trayastrimsha Heaven;

- ❖ Smell the fragrance of virtuous Learners, and those Beyond-Learning, as well as Pratyekabuddhas throughout the ten directions;
- ❖ Smell the fragrance of non-outflow Arhats of the Four Fruitions or Four Accesses;
- ❖ Smell the fragrance of countless Bodhisattvas on the Grounds of Happiness, Transcending Defilement, Emitting Light, Blazing Wisdom, Difficult to Surpass, Manifestation, Traveling Far, No Movement, Perfected Wisdom, and Dharma Clouds.
- ❖ Smell the fragrance of all sages' fivefold Dharma body of precepts, samadhi, wisdom, liberation, and knowledge and views of liberation;
- ❖ Smell the bodhi fragrance of all Buddhas;
- ❖ Smell the fragrance of the thirty-seven wings of enlightenment, the twelve dependent origination contemplations, and the six paramitas;
- ❖ Smell the fragrance of the Buddhas' threefold mindfulness of great compassion, the ten powers, the fourfold deliverance from fear, and the eighteen unique dharmas;
- ❖ Smell the fragrance of eighty-four thousand paramitas;
- ❖ Smell the fragrance of the Dharma body, which is eternally abiding, infinite, wondrous to the utmost and which pervades the ten directions.

Having made these vows about our nose faculty, let us all now, with utmost sincerity, bow in full prostration and take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

Making Vows about the Tongue Faculty

Again, we are here today in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Together with all other beings of the four births and the six paths throughout the ten directions, henceforth, until we attain bodhi, may we:

- ❖ Never taste the meat of creatures who have been harmed or killed;
- ❖ Never taste the meat of those who have died naturally;
- ❖ Never taste the blood or marrow of any being;
- ❖ Never taste the poisons of foes or karmic creditors;
- ❖ Never taste any flavor that triggers greed, attachment, or afflictions in living beings;

Instead, may all of us in the six paths, henceforth always be able to:

- ❖ Taste the hundred kinds of ambrosia;
- ❖ Taste the natural foods of the heavens;
- ❖ Taste the fragrant rice in the Land of Abundant Fragrance;
- ❖ Taste the flavor of the food of the Buddhas;
- ❖ Taste the flavors of cultivating the Dharma body through precepts, samadhi, and wisdom;
- ❖ Taste the joy of Dharma and the bliss of Dhyana;
- ❖ Taste the exquisite flavors that nourish our wisdom life through the myriad merit and virtue;
- ❖ Taste the one and equal flavor of liberation;
- ❖ Taste the supreme flavor of Buddhahood and the ultimate bliss of Nirvana.

Having made these vows about our tongue faculty, let us all now, with utmost sincerity, bow in full prostration and take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

Making Vows about the Body Faculty

Again, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Together with all other beings of the four births and the six paths throughout the ten directions, henceforth, until we attain bodhi, may we:

- ❖ Never feel the deluding or seductive tactile sensations associated with the five desires;
- ❖ Never feel boiling water, burning charcoal, or freezing ice;
- ❖ Never feel the flaming sensation on the heads of hungry ghosts or experienced by hell beings whose mouths are burned and scorched by molten copper;
- ❖ Never feel the pain and suffering of animals whose bodies and limbs are skinned, ripped, and torn apart;
- ❖ Never feel the suffering and afflictions of the four hundred four illnesses;
- ❖ Never feel unbearable scorching heat or freezing cold;
- ❖ Never feel the bites of mosquitoes, gnats, fleas and other insects;
- ❖ Never feel the harm of knives, clubs, or poisons;
- ❖ Never experience hunger, thirst, or any other torments.

Instead, may our bodies always:

- ❖ Feel the sensation of wonderful celestial garments;
- ❖ Experience the feeling of natural sweet dew;
- ❖ Feel the refreshingly cool and pleasant ambiance that is neither too warm nor too cold;
- ❖ Feel neither hunger nor thirst, illnesses or afflictions, but only a sense of well-being and vitality;
- ❖ Never feel the suffering caused by knives or clubs;
- ❖ Feel peaceful and at ease, whether asleep or awake, and be free of worries or fears;
- ❖ Feel the gentle breeze of the Buddhas' Pure Lands of the ten directions;

Making Vows about the Mind Faculty

Again, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Together with all other beings of the four births and the six paths throughout the ten directions, henceforth, until we attain bodhi, may we:

- ❖ Always be mindful of the perils of greed, desire, anger, and delusion;
- ❖ Always be mindful of the perils of killing, stealing, sexual misconduct, lying, frivolous speech, divisive speech, and harsh speech;
- ❖ Always be mindful that killing one's father, mother, or an Arhat; shedding the Buddha's blood; disrupting the harmony of the Sangha; slandering the Buddha, Dharma and Sangha; and disbelieving in cause and effect are all offenses that will send one directly into the Avici Hell;
- ❖ Always be mindful that there is rebirth after death and the accompanying retributions;
- ❖ Always be mindful to avoid those who are a bad influence and instead draw near to wholesome friends;
- ❖ Always be mindful not to consult the ninety-six kinds of deviant teachers or accept their dharma;
- ❖ Always be mindful that the three outflows, the five hindrances, and the ten entanglements are all obstructions;
- ❖ Always be mindful of the terrifying perils of the three evil destinies wherein the cruel cycles of birth and death and the retributions of severe suffering occur;
- ❖ Always be mindful that all living beings are endowed with the Buddha Nature;
- ❖ Always be mindful that Buddhas are like compassionate fathers to those of us in this world and unsurpassed physician kings, that the sacred Dharma is the effective antidote for all living beings' illnesses, and that all sages and worthy ones are like mothers caring for sick living beings;
- ❖ Always be mindful that we should take refuge with the Three Treasures, receive the five precepts, and practice the ten good deeds and other practices such as these that will result in superior blessings in the human and heavenly realms;

- ❖ Always be mindful that since we have not ended birth and death we should cultivate the seven kinds of expedient contemplations such as the stage of heating-up, and the stage of preeminence in the world;
- ❖ Always be mindful to cultivate the sixteen kinds of contemplation of the Four Noble Truths and thereafter to practice the sixteen sagely minds that lead to non-outflow, such as patience with suffering;
- ❖ Always be mindful that the Four Noble Truths, which are impartial and free of attributes, can lead us to attain the Four Fruitions;
- ❖ Always be mindful of the general and specific attributes of all dharmas;
- ❖ Always be mindful of the twelve links of dependent origination, and the law of cause and effect spanning the three periods of time — both of which revolve incessantly;
- ❖ Always be mindful to cultivate the six paramitas and the eighty thousand practices;
- ❖ Always be mindful to eradicate the eighty-four thousand wearisome defiling afflictions;
- ❖ Always be mindful to realize Non-production, as that realization will definitely help end birth and death;
- ❖ Always be mindful of Bodhisattvas' progressive stages of realization of the Way, starting from the ten abidings and continuing with the subsequent stages;
- ❖ Always be mindful to use the vajra mind to break through the darkness of ignorance and attain the unsurpassed fruition of Buddhahood;
- ❖ Always be mindful that, with the attainment of the ultimate illumination of totality, the myriad virtues are perfected, the myriad burdens and troubles end, and great Nirvana is realized;
- ❖ Always be mindful of the Buddhas' ten powers, four fearlessness, and the eighteen unique dharmas, their immeasurable wisdom, their infinite wholesome dharmas, and their limitless merit and virtue.

Having made these vows about our mind faculty, let us all now, with utmost sincerity, bow in full prostration and take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

Making Vows about Our Mouth Faculty

Again, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. Together with all other beings of the four births and the six paths throughout the ten directions, henceforth, until we attain bodhi, may we:

- ❖ Never slander or disparage the Three Treasures;
- ❖ Never slander people who propagate the Dharma nor talk about their mistakes and offenses;
- ❖ Never say that good deeds do not bring good rewards and that bad deeds do not result in bad retributions;
- ❖ Never say that the death of beings is nihilistic and there is no rebirth;
- ❖ Never say anything that is harmful or detrimental;
- ❖ Never discuss the externalists or their teachings;
- ❖ Never encourage others to commit the ten evil deeds or the five rebellious acts;
- ❖ Never gossip about others' mistakes or offenses;
- ❖ Never talk about meaningless or frivolous worldly affairs;
- ❖ Never tell others to believe in deviant teachers or evil ghosts or spirits;
- ❖ Never comment on the good and bad of others;
- ❖ Never scold or curse parents, teachers, elders, or wholesome friends;
- ❖ Never advise others to commit offenses or prevent others from cultivating blessings.

Instead, may we:

- ❖ Always praise the Three Treasures;
- ❖ Always praise those who proclaim and propagate the Dharma, extolling their merit and virtue;
- ❖ Always explain to others the retributions of good and evil deeds;
- ❖ Always say that a being's soul will not be annihilated after death;
- ❖ Always use wholesome speech to benefit others;
- ❖ Always expound the Tathagatas' Twelve Divisions of sacred texts;

- ❖ Always state that living beings are endowed with the Buddha Nature and can attain Nirvana, with the four qualities of permanence, bliss, true self and purity;
- ❖ Always instruct others to be filial to their parents and respectfully attend to their teachers and elders;
- ❖ Always encourage others to take refuge with the Three Treasures, receive and uphold the five precepts, cultivate the ten good deeds, and practice the sixfold mindfulness;
- ❖ Always praise the benefits of reading, reciting, and memorizing sutras;
- ❖ Always talk about all manner of good deeds.
- ❖ Always advise others to draw near to good and wise advisers and to avoid those who are bad or evil;
- ❖ Always speak about the immeasurable merit and virtue of the various stages of fruition from the ten abidings up to Buddhahood;
- ❖ Always encourage others to cultivate the Pure Land practices and adorn one's ultimate fruition;
- ❖ Always exhort others to diligently venerate the Three Treasures;
- ❖ Always encourage others to create or set up Buddha images and make various offerings;
- ❖ Always exhort others to do good deeds with the same urgency as if saving one's head that is on fire, and
- ❖ Always exhort others to ceaselessly help those who are distressed, impoverished, and in need.

Having made these vows about our mouth faculty, let us all now, with utmost sincerity, bow in full prostration and take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

Dharma-doors of Cultivation

We also vow that all beings of the four births and the six paths throughout the ten directions henceforth accomplish all these Dharma-doors of Cultivation:

- ❖ The Dharma-door of reverence and respect — so as to have deep faith in the Three Treasures;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of being steadfast — so as to never be skeptical;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of diligently repenting — so as to eradicate the evil committed;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of remorse — so as to attain purity;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of guarding the body — so that it will not be defiled by the three evil karmas of killing, stealing, and lust;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of guarding one's speech — so as to be completely free of the four kinds of speech offenses: frivolous speech, divisive speech, harsh speech, and false speech;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of guarding one's mind — so as to calm it and attain purity;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of bodhi — so as to fulfill all our vows and resolves;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of compassion — so as not to harm any living being;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of kindness — so as to influence others to establish virtue;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of happiness — so as to never belittle or slander others;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of utmost sincerity — so as to never deceive others;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of relying on the Three Treasures — so as to eliminate the three evil destinies;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of being genuine — so as to never be pretentious;

- ❖ The Dharma-door of renouncing fetters of the mind — so as to be without hesitation and procrastination;
- ❖ The Dharma-door of non-contention — so as to eliminate thoughts of fighting, or arguing, or litigation; and,
- ❖ The Dharma-door of the One Worthy of Offerings and Proper Enlightenment — so as to always uphold equanimity;

Also, may living beings perfect the practices of immeasurably many Dharma-doors, including:

- ❖ Dharma-door of reflection on mental tendencies, by contemplating thoughts as illusory;
- ❖ Dharma-door of severing discursive thoughts, by discarding the roots of that which is unwholesome;
- ❖ Dharma-door of the full attainment of spiritual powers, by feeling light and at ease in both body and mind;
- ❖ Dharma-door of roots of faith, by never retreating;
- ❖ Dharma-door of roots of vigor, by never forsaking being inspired by and intent upon goodness;
- ❖ Dharma-door of roots of mindfulness, by skillfully creating wholesome karma leading to the Way;
- ❖ Dharma-door of roots of samadhi, by focusing the mind on the proper path;
- ❖ Dharma-door of roots of wisdom, by contemplating suffering, impermanence, and emptiness;
- ❖ Dharma-door of faith-power, by overpowering demonic forces;
- ❖ Dharma-door of vigor-power, by always advancing without ever retreating;
- ❖ Dharma-door of mindfulness-power, by never forgetting or forsaking mindfulness;
- ❖ Dharma-door of samadhi-power, by eliminating all false thoughts;

- ❖ Dharma-door of wisdom-power, by skillfully dealing with whatever comes or goes;
- ❖ Dharma-door of the bodhi-share of vigor, by accumulating practices of the Buddha Way;
- ❖ Dharma-door of proper concentration, by attaining samadhi; and,
- ❖ Dharma-door of the pure nature, by never delighting in lesser Vehicles.

May all living beings accomplish all Bodhisattvas' one hundred eight Dharma-doors. These include:

- ❖ Purifying the Buddhalands;
- ❖ Exhorting and transforming those who are stingy or jealous;
- ❖ Liberating those in the evil destinies and the eight difficulties;
- ❖ Gathering in and transforming those who are hateful, angry, litigious, or contentious;
- ❖ Diligently cultivating all good deeds and influencing and encouraging everyone not to be lax or lazy;
- ❖ Having the samadhi and spiritual powers to gather in beings troubled by scattered thoughts;

Having made these vows, let us all now with utmost sincerity, bow in full prostration and take refuge with the Greatly Kind and Compassionate Ones who are like fathers to those of us in this world.

Section 40 - Sincere Requests

Today, we are here in this Bodhimanda due to our shared karma. We have already made vows on behalf of living beings of the four births and the six paths. And we trust that you great Bodhisattvas with your kindness and compassion will gather in and take care of all living beings. From the causes and conditions that lead to creating merit and virtue while repenting and making vows here in this Bodhimanda today, may you with the power of your great kindness and compassion enable all living beings to:

- ❖ Delight in seeking the unsurpassed field of blessings and deeply believe that making offerings to Buddhas brings about immeasurable rewards;
- ❖ Have devout faith in Buddhas and attain immeasurable rewards of purity.

May living beings:

- ❖ Harbor no thoughts of stinginess but readily and unreservedly make great offerings in the presence of Buddhas;
- ❖ Cultivate the unsurpassed field of blessings in the presence of Buddhas, renounce any aspirations for the Two Vehicles, cultivate the Bodhisattva Path, and gain the Tathagata's unobstructed liberation and Wisdom of All Modes;
- ❖ Plant inexhaustible roots of goodness in the presence of Buddhas and thus attain the Buddhas' limitless merit, virtue, and wisdom.
- ❖ Assimilate profound wisdom, emulating the pure, unsurpassed King of Wisdom;
- ❖ Have self-mastery in traveling and attain the Buddhas' unobstructed spiritual powers to go anywhere;
- ❖ Embrace the Mahayana, obtain immeasurable Modes of Wisdom, and dwell steadfastly therein;
- ❖ Perfectly accomplish the foremost field of blessings, from which wells forth stages of All-Wisdom;

- ❖ Never harbor any thought of hatred or loathing toward the Buddhas but instead plant roots of goodness and joyfully seek the Buddha's wisdom;
- ❖ Be able go to all the magnificent Buddhlands using wonderful expedient means, and within a single thought, tirelessly enter the profound Dharma realm;
- ❖ Attain boundless bodies and be able to travel tirelessly throughout the worlds of the ten directions;
- ❖ Accomplish vast bodies that can go wherever they please, attain all the Buddhas' spiritual powers to adorn the ultimate other shore, and within a single thought, manifest the Tathagatas' complete mastery of spiritual powers that pervade empty space.

Having made these great vows, which are as vast as the Dharma nature and as ultimate as empty space, we pray that living beings will fulfill all their wishes and perfect their bodhi vows. Together, with utmost sincerity, we now bow in full prostration.

Since we ourselves have to undergo retributions involving suffering and may be unable to rescue other living beings, we do humbly entrust them all to the following Bodhisattvas:

- ❖ The limitless and boundless non-produced Dharma-body Bodhisattvas extending to the ends of empty space;
- ❖ The limitless and boundless non-outflow form-body Bodhisattvas extending to the ends of empty space; and unwavering resolve, never be apart from good and wise advisers, and attain the indestructible mind free of defilement. May all living beings renounce everything, even their own lives, for the sake of good and wise advisers and never go against their teachings. May all living beings cultivate great kindness and stay away from all evil. May they receive and uphold the Buddha's proper Dharma once they hear it. May all living beings have the Bodhisattvas' roots of goodness and karmic rewards, attain ultimate purity in their Bodhisattva practices and vows, perfect their spiritual powers, and attain as-you-wish self-mastery. May they thereby ride on the Mahayana and never become weary or lax until they perfect the ultimate Wisdom of All Modes; may they ride the vehicle of wisdom, reaching secure and tranquil places; may they acquire the unobstructed Vehicle, accomplishing ultimate self-mastery.

May all the following practices:

starting from the beginning and up to the end of this Repentance, together with all the merit and virtue generated, be dedicated to all living beings throughout the ten directions to the ends of empty space.

We now look up to and pray that Maitreya, the future Buddha, World-Honored One, bear witness to our vows and practices, and that the Buddhas of the ten directions kindly and compassionately guard and protect us, so that our repentance and our vows will both be accomplished. May all living beings be born in the land of this compassionate one who is a like father to us, attend his very first Dharma assembly, and awaken to the Way upon listening to the Dharma. May all be completely endowed with all the merit and virtue, as well as wisdom that are identical to that of the Bodhisattvas. May everyone gain entry into the vajra mind and accomplish Proper and Equal Enlightenment.

Praying to and Praising the Buddhas

duo tuo a qie du a luo he san miao san fo tuo

Honored are the Buddhas with ten titles, which include Tathagata, Worthy of Offerings, One of Proper and Pervasive Knowledge. They rescue immeasurable numbers of living beings and extricate them from the sufferings of birth and death. May the merit and virtue attained from repenting and bowing to the Buddhas enable all living beings to fulfill their vows and their bodhi resolve. May our vows be identical to that of all Buddhas and great Bodhisattvas of the ten directions to the ends of empty space.

Just as the vows of all Buddhas and Bodhisattvas are limitless and boundless, as vast as the Dharma nature, as ultimate as empty space, and extend throughout all kalpas to the end of time, so too will be our vows.

Just as living beings are limitless and boundless, so too are our vows.

Just as worlds are limitless and boundless, so too are our vows.

Just as empty space is limitless and boundless, so too are our vows.

Just as the Dharma nature is limitless and boundless, so too are our vows.

Just as Nirvana is limitless and boundless, so too are our vows.

Just as the Buddhas' manifestations in the worlds are limitless and boundless, so too are our vows.

Just as the Buddhas' wisdom is limitless and boundless, so too are our vows.

心緣不可盡，我願不可盡。

慈悲道場懺法卷第十

Just as our scheming thoughts are limitless and boundless, so too are our vows.

Just as our discriminatory thoughts are limitless and boundless, so too are our vows.

Just as the mundane ways, the transcendental ways, and the ways of wisdom are limitless and boundless, so too are our vows.

Only when all the above ten circumstances come to an end will our vows end. We now pay homage to the sages of all Three Vehicles.

Concluding the Repentance

The Buddha's ten bodies are fine and splendidous,
 Majestic and unmoving like a purple golden mountain.
 The Benevolent One, honored with the ten titles,
 His hallmarks vast, perfect, and jade-like.
 Uses his spiritual powers to universally respond.
 His wondrous edifying teaching knows no restriction.
 May he pour his unobstructed perfect radiance down upon us
 And bear witness to the effort we have put into this last Roll.
 Respectfully, we bow to the Enlightened Ones of the ten directions;
 We repent of our offenses from the ten evils.

[Dharma Host: On behalf of _____] and all of us who seek to repent, we practice this Repentance Dharma of Kindness and Compassion in the Bodhimanda. We have now successfully completed Roll Ten. May all reap the perfect and abundant fruition of its goodness.

In this Bodhimanda:

Lamps are lit, and their radiance blaze forth. Arrays of sublime flowers adorn together with presentations of tea and fruits. We make these offerings from the depths of our sincere hearts. We extensively extol the meritorious deeds of the Buddhas and venerate Tathagatas numerous as dust motes. Our resolve is ever resolute and our dedication deep and sincere.

We pray to the Greatly Enlightened Ones of the ten directions, the sacred and splendidous Dharma of the Tripitaka, Pratyekabuddhas with the five eyes, Arhats with the six spiritual powers, Gods in the heavens and the sages on earth, spiritual ones in the water and worthy ones on land, who all encompass the four domains, are boundless and efficacious, and constantly bestowing blessings. May you all bear witness to our sincerity and to the wholesome seeds we, mundane ones, have planted.

[Dharma Host: On behalf of _____] and all of us who seek to repent, we further pray that everyone will be cleansed of their subtle offenses and amass boundless blessings.

We bow and earnestly pray:

May we be instantly freed from the ten fetters and be liberated from the ten entanglements.

May we perfect the ten resolves and fulfill the ten vows, so we become like a bright moon shining in the clear sky.

May we cultivate the ten grounds and sever the ten obstacles, so we become like flowers blossoming in the Garden of Enlightenment.

May we find the gate to liberation in each and every dust mote, and may every place reveal the workings of True Suchness.

May friends and foes, sages and ordinary beings everywhere receive benefit, so that all can realize the wondrous way to Nirvana from the wholesome conditions of this Repentance.

Having done just minimal repentance, we fear our subtle delusions may not be removed. Let us exhort ourselves that together, we continue to repent and reform.

Praise

The meritorious power of the Emperor of Liang Repentance Roll Ten
Enables the disciples and the deceased to eradicate offenses of ten entanglements.
May all realize the Bodhisattva's Ground of Dharma Clouds.
As the Repentance is chanted, our offenses are blown away like flower petals in the wind.

We dedicate its merit to the four benefactors and the three realms.
May all in this assembly enjoy increased longevity and blessings,
May the deceased be reborn in the Western Pure Land,
May the Dharma water cleanse our offenses.
May the Bodhisattvas of the Ground of Dharma Clouds compassionately gather us in.

Verse of Overall Dedication

May the merit and virtue
From the profound act of bowing this Repentance,
With all its superior limitless blessings,
Be dedicated to all beings sunk in defilement.
May all quickly go to the Buddha's Land of Infinite Light.

understand the great way profoundly and bring forth the bodhi mind. (2 times)

To the Dharma I return and rely, vowing that all living beings deeply enter the sutra treasury and have wisdom like the sea. (2 times)

To the Sangha I return and rely, vowing that all living beings

法界佛教總會简介

法界佛教總會（以下稱法總），前身為中美佛教總會，係宣化上人所創辦的國際性宗教及教育組織。本會以法界為體，以將佛教的真實義理，普遍傳播到世界各地；以弘揚正法、翻譯經典、提倡道德教育、利樂一切有情為己任，俾使個人、家庭、社會、國家，乃至世界，皆能蒙受佛法之熏習，而漸趨至真、至善、至美之境地。

法總秉承宣化上人的四大宏願：一、建立僧團；二、翻譯經典；三、創辦教育；四、宗教聯合。為了弘揚正法，除了培育及訓練人才之外，更致力於道場的建立，以期大興聖教，轉法輪，作佛事，提供修行人遵循佛制之清淨修持道場。

法總自1959年成立以來，相繼成立了23座道場，遍佈美洲、亞洲、澳洲，以位於舊金山北部110英里的萬佛聖城為樞紐。各分支道場均遵守上人所立下的嚴謹家風：

凍死不攀緣，餓死不化緣，窮死不求緣；
隨緣不變，不變隨緣，抱定我們三大宗旨。
捨命為佛事，造命為本事，正命為僧事；
即事明理，明理即事，推行祖師一脈心傳。

The Dharma Realm Buddhist Association

The Dharma Realm Buddhist Association (DRBA), formerly known as the Sino-American Buddhist Association, was founded by the Venerable Master Hsuan Hua. It is established as an international religious and educational corporation. Taking the Dharma Realm as its scope, the Association aims to bring true principles and genuine teachings of the Buddha to the entire world. The Association is also dedicated to propagating the Orthodox Dharma, translating the Buddhist canon, promoting ethical education, and bringing benefit and happiness to all beings. Its hope is that individuals, families, the society, the nation, and the entire world will, under the transforming influence of the Buddhadharma, gradually reach the state of ultimate truth and goodness.

DRBA carries forward Venerable Master Hua's four great vows, which are (1) establishing a Buddhist Sangha, (2) translating the entire Buddhist Canon, (3) promoting and developing education in Buddhist tradition and (4) promoting interfaith harmony. In order to spread the genuine Dharma, besides nourishing and training for the talents, DRBA is ever more dedicated to establish monasteries so that sagely teachings flourish and the Dharma wheel turns. Consequently, DRBA can provide pure monasteries, which adhere to the Buddha's precepts, for practitioners to cultivate and do the Buddha's work.

Since the establishment of Dharma Realm Buddhist Association in 1959, DRBA has found 23 centers located throughout America, Asia and Australia. Taking the City of Ten Thousand Buddhas, 110 miles north of San Francisco, as its headquarter, DRBA centers strictly adhere to the following guidelines:

*Freezing to death, we do not scheme.
Starving to death, we do not beg.
Dying of poverty, we ask for nothing.
According with conditions, we do not change.
Not changing, we accord with conditions.
We adhere firmly to our three great principles.
We renounce our lives to do the Buddha's work.
We take the responsibility to mold our own destinies.
We rectify our lives as the Sangha's work.
Encountering specific matters, we understand the principles.
Understanding the principles, we apply them in specific matters.
We carry on the single pulse of the patriarchs' mind-transmission.*

矢志奉行上人所倡導的六大宗旨：不爭、不貪、不求、不自私、不自利、不打妄語。僧眾則恪遵上人之規定：日中一食，衣不離體；並持戒念佛，習教參禪，和合共住，獻身佛教；日日講經說法，轉大法輪，普度眾生。

法總的教育機構，有國際譯經學院、法界宗教學術研究院、僧伽居士訓練班、法界佛教大學、培德中學、育良小學等。除了積極培養弘法、翻譯及教育之傑出人才之外，並推展各宗教間之交流與對話，以促進宗教間的團結與合作，共同致力於世界和平之重責大任。

時值末法，世風險惡，本著法界佛教總會之宗旨，萬佛聖城設立全面性的佛學研究及修行中心，為國際性之道場，門戶開放，沒有人我、宗教、種族、國籍的分別；凡是各國各教人士，願致力於仁義道德、追求真理、明心見性者，皆歡迎前來修持，共同研習。

DRBA based itself on the six great principles Venerable Master Hua advocated, do not fight; do not be greedy; do not seek; do not be selfish; do not pursue personal advantages; and do not lie. Monks and nuns also maintain the standard of eating only one meal a day; always wearing the precept sash; upholding the precepts while being mindful of the Buddha; studying the teachings and investigating Chan; living harmoniously in a community; dedicating oneself to Buddhism; speaking Dharmas and lecturing on Sutras daily; turning the great Dharma wheel; and saving all living beings universally.

DRBA has also established educational institutions, which are International Translation Institute, Institute of World Religions, Sangha and Laity Training Program, Dharma Realm Buddhist University, Developing Virtue Secondary School, and Instilling Goodness Elementary School. Besides actively training outstanding talents in areas of Dharma propagation, sutra translation and education, DRBA also advocates interfaith dialogues in order to bring unity and collaboration among religions. It is committed to promote world peace with all religions.

At the ends of Dharma, the world is full of danger and evils. Based on DRBA's mission, the City of Ten Thousand Buddhas (CTTB) has established a comprehensive Buddhist research and practice center. As an international monastery, it is open to all religions; selfless without discriminating any religion, race and nationality. Anyone, from any country or any religion, who is committed to embody virtue and ethics; seek for true principles; understand the mind and see the nature, are welcome to CTTB to practice and study.
