

The Bodhi Mirror Presents

Dharma Master Seck Kuan Yim

"After listening to Tripitaka Master Hua's lectures in Singapore and Malaysia, I felt a deep interest in the Dharma in a way I had never experienced before," comments Bhikshu Kuan Yim during his recent visit to the City of 10,000 Buddhas.

And what Bhikshu Kuan Yim found when he came to the peaceful center for world Buddhism to see for himself was that "there's no better place than the City of 10,000 Buddhas for cultivation of the Way." A college graduate and fluent in several languages, Bhikshu Kuan Yim was fully ordained in Singapore in 1970 after having studied under the Venerable Dhammananda for several years. He applies himself to the Dharma door of meditation.