Announcement

For many years, the Dharma Realm Buddhist Association at the City of Ten Thousand Buddhas and its branches have been following the Buddha's original compassionate intent to prevent killing and protect life by conducting liberating life ceremonies at regular intervals. In order to enlarge the scope of the spirit of compassion and the teachings of regard for life embodied in the ceremonies for liberating life, starting from today the Association proposes to expand the use of present and future funds designated for liberating life to include the following items: 1) Continuing to conduct liberating life ceremonies at regular intervals; 2) Publishing various categories of media—articles, books, periodicals, compact discs and so forth—advocating prevention of killing and protection of life and encouraging vegetarianism; 3) Conducting lectures and other activities connected with advocating prevention of killing and protection of life and encouraging vegetarianism; 4) Rescuing abused /injured animals and other such related activities; 5) Creating or acquiring habitats for liberated animals.

If you have any questions, please contact the Administration Office at the City of Ten Thousand Buddhas: Address: 2001 Talmage Road, Ukiah, CA 95482; Telephone: (707) 462-0939; Fax: (707) 462-0949.
