

法界的孩子——法總推廣教育面面觀

Children of the Dharma Realm:

Multiple Aspects of DRBA's Promotion of Education

每年春天舉行懷少節，已成為法總各道場的傳統。上人提倡懷少節的用意，是在提醒大家共同來關懷年輕的一輩，讓大人以身作則，為下一代樹立人格典範。並讓下一代在關懷中，學會自尊自重，同時關懷他人與社會，走上人生的光明大道。

在懷少節的前夕，本刊推出「法界的孩子——法總推廣教育面面觀」專題，當您為孩子尋覓一個清淨的學習環境時，得以有所選擇參考；同時也表達我們對上人無盡的敬意與感恩。雖然上人已圓寂十五年，但推廣佛法教育的願力仍遺澤人間，法總各分支道場本此理念仍繼續努力嘉惠學子。因為我們都深信，致力辦教育，可以讓世界更美好。 ☞ 下接41頁

Sponsoring Cherishing Youth Day has become a DRBA tradition over the years. The purpose of Venerable Master Hua's effort to cherish youth is to remind everyone to care for the youth so that adults will be exemplars of integrity and character for the next generation. In a caring environment, the next generation will learn to respect themselves. They will also learn to care about others and society and choose to walk down a good path to a bright future.

As Cherishing Youth Day approaches, our journal has set up a special column, "Children of the Dharma Realm: Multiple Aspects of DRBA's Promotion of Education," to serve as a reference for you on your search for a pure learning environment for your children, and also, to convey our inexhaustible respect and gratitude to the Venerable Master Hua. Although he entered stillness 15 years ago, his vow of promoting education still abides and benefits people in this world. Many of DRBA's branch monasteries continue to carry on his educational vision to benefit children. We deeply believe that, through education, the world will become a better place.

☞ Continued on page 41

