On Friday, April 15, at 9 o'clock in the morning, it was drizzling steadily; five hundred school children from neighboring schools in Ukiah came to the City of Ten Thousand Buddhas (CTTB) with a special invitation to attend the annual celebration of Cherishing Youth Day. The students, accompanied by their teachers, came with excitement and curiosity. The students of Instilling Goodness Elementary School and Developing Virtue Secondary School - boys and girls schools - guided them through many different booths where they took turns playing with specially-designed games or watching short performances. Additionally, the young guests had the opportunity to tour CTTB and to become familiar with the beautiful surroundings of the city.
