

新年開示 Words for the New Year

The Staff members of the Vajra Bodhi Sea Magazine
Exhort readers and ourselves with the instruction
by the Venerable Master on January. 6, 1991.

This year is 1991 all is as you wish, but do not gamble.
Playing the stock and traveling is like falling down the bottomless hole.
Obey your role and work with responsibility, and you will have a new stage for life.
Entering the mountain, abstain from harming being's life.
Nearing the waters, absolutely do not fish.
Respect and be filial to your parents and elders.
Kindness and peace will avert war.
