This year is the fiftieth anniversary of the Venerable Master Hsuan Hua's bringing the Dharma to the West, and we have a series of activities to remember and reflect on the past as well as look towards the future. In order to make these activities reach more people and influence them at a deeper level, we now organize an essay contest as part of this year's activities. The writer can choose his/her own topic as long as the content is related to the conditions with Ven. Master, his influence on you, his Dharma propagation, translation, education, interfaith dialogues and so on. We encourage people to submit their articles for the contest.

The essay can be written in either Chinese or English for the contest. Contestants will be divided into the following competing categories:

- A: Includes adults such as college students and working class.
- B: Includes high school students. (9-12th graders)
- C: Includes middle school students (8th graders and below)

Essay Word Limit:

- A: 1200-3000 words.
- B: 600-1200 words.
- C: 400-800 words.

The deadline is 5-31-2012, and the contest results will be announced by 6-15-2012. Essays receiving awards will be published in Vajra Bodhi Sea monthly magazine and DRBA websites and publications. Contest organizers will retain the copyrights of the essay.

Please submit the entry to 4951 Bodhi Way, Ukiah, CA95482 USA (DVBS Chinese Department) or E-Mail to dvbscd@gmail.com
