A Bodhi seed was sown more than twenty years ago in Malaysia, when I heard about Rev. Heng Sure's three steps one bow pilgrimage in San Francisco from my mother. At that time, it was a legendary story to a young girl who could never imagine that one day, when the seed ripens, she will have a chance to assist in organizing a Dharma talk event for Rev. Heng Sure in Melbourne. Now with this occasion, we are once again given another chance to sow more new Bodhi seeds in Melbourne...
