On October 24-25, 2015, the 4th World Buddhist Forum was held in Wuxi, China. Over one thousand delegates from fifty-two countries met together in a spirit of mutual respect and harmony. Rev. Heng Sure, the President of Dharma Realm Buddhist Association, Bhikshu Jin Chuan, and Madalena Tam were invited as the representatives to attend. The theme was "Common Aspirations and Actions – Exchanges and Mutual Learning." The aim was to look into the essential principles of Buddhism and consider how they could be made relevant to modern life. Many eminent monks and Buddhist leaders discussed pressing concerns in Buddhism today as well as issues affecting the world as a whole.
